International Organizing Committee,

25th International Geographical Congress,

19, rue Isidore Pierre 14000 CAEN (France)

The International Geographical Congress is held every fourth year. It attracts leading Geographers and Cartographers from all over the world. The forthcoming 25th International Congress to be held in Paris and in the Alps in 1984 will have the patronage of international and national institutions from France, Germany, Austria, Switzerland and Italy, who will also act as host countries.

The main working sessions at Paris, between 27th and 31st of August 1984, will be devoted to the themes grouped under six sections, three general symposia and one workshop, the latter devoted exclusively to the use of Audio - Visual aids in geographical education.

The Pre-Congress Symposia and the Post-Congress scientific excursions and tours conducted by specialists in different fields, emphasising special features of different fields, emphasising special features of different regions in the Alps, are an added attraction of the Congress. A joint Cartographic and Geographic exhibition and several other short excursions around Paris, along with cultural and social programmes for accompanying members are also arranged.
